MILITARY

Mass Held For Dead of Army and Navy Largely Attended at

BROOKLYN NAVY YARD

New York, May 24.—There was a large attendance at the military field mass in the Brooklyn navy yard today.

As early as 9 o'clock the people began to gather at the navy yard gates although the mass was not to begin until 10:30. Every building facing the parade ground where the mass was celebrated was adorned with American flags and a profusion of the flags hung over the balconies of the marine barracks, before the center of which the elaborate altar was erected.

Before the mass there was music, both religious and secular, ranging from "Onward Christian Soldiers" to "Auld Lang Syne," "Annie Laurie," and "Marching Through Georgia."

The service was under the auspices of Gloucester Naval Camp of Spanish War Veterans, assisted by the Long Island chapter of the Knights of Columbus, and was designed as a memorial day tribute to the dead of the army and navy and marine corps of the United States. The celebrant was the Rev. William H. I. Reaney, chaplain of the navy and among his assistants were Father John F. Nash, rector of the Church of the Sacred Heart, and Father Chadwick, the Maine's former chaplain.

Among the several bodies officially in attendance were a detachment of the Marine corps, companies of blue jackets, the 69th, 47th and 14th regiments N. G. N. Y.

Rear Admiral Goodrich, commandant of the yard, had opened the yard to the public for this service.

Father Reaney preached a very short Memorial day sermon, saying that the service was in memory of those from all parts of the United States who died in the different branches of the military service of the country.

CHAIRMAN

Of State Democratic Central Committee Will be Announced Wednesday.

Columbus, O., May 24.—After a fortnight of deep study the candidates upon the Democratic state ticket will meet next Wednesday and announce to the state central committee their choice for chairman of the state executive committee. It has been arranged for them to meet during the morning hours of that day and to transmit their finding to the representatives of the district organizations in the afternoon. The probable outcome continues to be a political mystery. It is known that Judson Harmon, the nominee for governor, has been carefully surveying the situation, and has been in consultation with the leaders of every district of the state. As he stated at the last meeting of the candidates and committeemen, it is a purely business proposition that is being faced, and that there is little, if any, room in it for sentiment. The campaign director must be a man who will combine with executive ability the power of being pleasing to all of the factions and interests of the party.

Of course, the perfect man is not going to be found, for the person who has no political enemies has no political friends. The party is not seeking for a eunuch. Just now the hitch involves personal considerations, when none should be permitted to complicate such a weighty matter.

Inclination to cast aside those already mentioned and take up a new man has been observed, and among those proposed have been E. W. Hanley, of Dayton, and James A. Rice, of Canton, the former the vice president of the state committee, and the latter the candidate for attorney general upon the Pattison ticket in 1905. These are merely suggestions, however, and as far as known do not carry the backing of any votes. The fuss and flummery kicked up at the state convention by Mayor Johnson and his following because of the defeat of Atlee Pomerene for governor seems to have subsided, and with it the talk of an independent ticket.

Mayor Brand Whitlock, of Toledo, who was tendered the independent nomination by the picturesque Peter Witt, of Cleveland, is too practical a politician to get into a game of this kind simply to make trouble. If there was a possibility of being elected upon a platform that was something besides negation, there is no question that Whitlock would cheerfully make the race and try to be elected.

Mayor Johnson and Judge Harmon seem to have arrived at an understanding, and so the matter becomes a closed incident. Johnson started the row, and he has had strength enough to stop it.

Letter to DR. S. A. CONKLIN, Canton, O.

Dear Sir: A great many people will see your house in the course of the next ten years. We want it to show what Devos lead-and-zinc will do. We should like you to paint it, and then not paint it again for ten years—unless it needs repainting.

We'd like such a sample as that in every town in the country—with a notice about it in the local paper: "Mr. —'s house was painted ten years ago with Devos lead-and-zinc, and has never been repainted. The color is not so bright as it was; but the paint is as perfect a coat as ever, to keep out water."

A good lead-and-zinc job is expected to last three years; it is a good one that lasts three years; it generally does not. Devos lead-and-zinc lasts twice as long, if not—

"If you have any fault to find with this paint, either now in putting on, or hereafter in the wear, tell your dealer about it."

"We authorize him to do what is right at our expense."

We want your house as a sample, and you as a witness. Yours truly, F. W. DEVOS & CO.

FOR SALE—CHEAP.

HORSE, Weight 1100 lbs. Also harness and Buggy. Will trade for a piano or vacant lot. Bell phone 1539R6.

REFORMED CHURCH SYNOD TO MEET HERE IN 1911

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Miller of Trinity Reformed church, are at York, Pa., in attendance on the sessions of the general synod of the Reformed church. Mr. Miller addressed a large Sunday school meeting of the synod on Sunday afternoon. On Saturday he forwarded a telegram to Dr. E. P. Herbruck announcing that the synod had accepted the invitation from the Reformed churches of Canton and would hold its next triennial session here in the month of May, 1911. This will bring here a religious gathering of about 500 people for an entire week. The synod is the most important ecclesiastical body of the Reformed denomination in this country.

MYERS LAKE PARK

Opener Proved to be Unqualified Success—Good Bill on at the Theater.

A great crowd invaded Meyers lake yesterday, the opening day of the season, and by mid-afternoon the popular resort had taken on a mid-summer holiday appearance. Everybody seemed to be in accord with the day, which was an ideal one for the occasion, and the "opener" will go down in the history of the park as an unqualified success.

Many of those who visited the park found many new and wonderful sights along the "pike" and the general opinion seemed to be that the concessions and amusements are of a higher class than ever this year. The buildings have been painted and everything furnished up so that the appearance of things is decidedly new.

There was a crowd of Pittsburghers, brewery workers, whose picnic was the first of the season held at the park. Manager Ritz announces that during the summer many picnics will be held, a majority by organizations that will bring thousands of members and friends to the lake park.

At the theatre was found a good crowd which applauded one of the best vaudeville bills ever seen at the lake casino to the echo. The bill is unique to Canton theatregoers inasmuch as there are two headliners, James H. Cullen, "The Man from the West," and the great Nelson family, acrobats. The other numbers were also of high class.

James H. Cullen is in a class by himself, and is known wherever there has been high class vaudeville for any length of time. Little more than a year ago he returned to this country after a most successful London engagement where his song hits made him popular from the start. In this country his name on the bill means something good and in this respect the audience at the lake theatre yesterday was not disappointed. He raised many a laugh and at the same time the subtle philosophy in some of his lyrics furnished much food for thought. He was heartily received and the audience was loath to see him leave the stage.

The Nelson Family, without a peer in the world of acrobatics, is well known here, having been seen in the ring of the great circuses, Ringling's being their last engagement of that nature, and were royally received when they made their initial bow. From that time until the drop of the curtain the air seemed full of whirling revolving bodies and there was more doing on the stage than in many a one ring circus of the olden days. The work of the youngsters of the family and that of the girl made a decided hit but the applause granted to all was generous.

The show opened with the Hobson Sisters, billed as graceful benders, and they proved to be all of that and more. The Four Dancing Harbises also made a hit and showed some dancing the like of which is not often seen in this city. Harvey and Elliott in "The Vocal Teacher," furnished considerable comedy and were received with favor. The pictures and orchestra selections were good.

PROMINENT ATTORNEY AND POLITICIAN GOES TO THE ASYLUM

Broken mentally and physically, Attorney Adolphus H. Clark, of East Liverpool, was brought last week by Sheriff Wells, of Columbiana county, to the State Insane asylum at Massillon, in the hope that institutional treatment may prove beneficial to him.

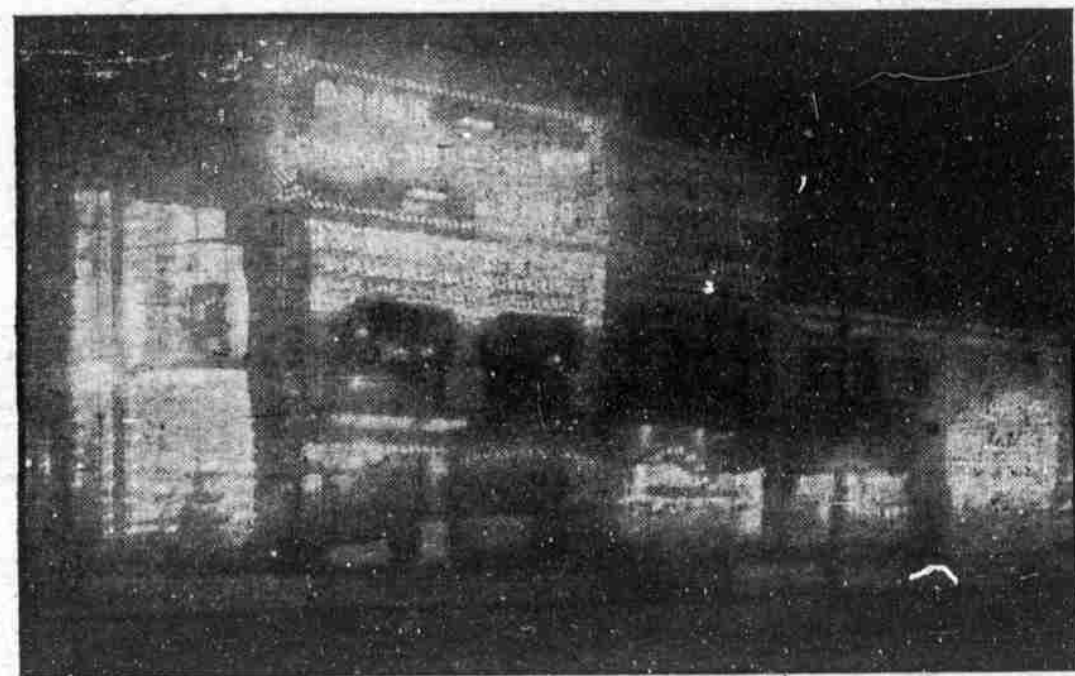

For over two years past Mr. Clark has suffered from nervous prostration and a general physical breakdown. He has been cared for at home and for several months past has been noticed that his mind was giving way. About eight weeks ago he began to suffer delusions when he would imagine that his wife was attempting to poison him and in other ways to persecute him and he finally became so violent that it was thought best to place him under arrest. Mr. Clark readily consented to go to the hospital for treatment. At one time he was one of the most prominent attorneys and a leading Republican politician of Columbiana county. He is a brother-in-law of ex-Congressman George P. Kirk, of East Liverpool.

Valued Same as Gold.

B. G. Stewart, a merchant of Cedar View, Miss., says: "I tell my customers when they buy a box of Dr. King's New Life Pills they get the worth of that much gold in weight, if afflicted with constipation, malaria or biliousness." Sold under guarantee at The Durbin & Wright drug store. 25c.
